

SEA VIEW UPDATE

LOOKING FORWARD TO THE WEEK OF
FEB 14 - 18

HEADS UP!

Monday, February 14th—Valentines Day—We are inviting students to dress in valentines day colours. Please make sure that students are able to run around and play.

Monday, February 14th—Candy grams—Candy grams will be delivered to students in the afternoon. These are to be consumed after school at the discretion of parents and guardians.

Monday, February 14th—Scavenger hunt—Students will be in groups outside looking for their teams hidden treasures. Students will receive a small bag of goodies at the end. Please make sure your child is dressed to run around and play.

For the Reads Acts of Kindness week we will be decorating and placing rocks around the town. Please keep an eye out for those. We will also be cutting out hearts and writing caring messages on them. Look for those in the windows facing the road and near the office.

We are looking for volunteers to help with our breakfast club. If you would be interested in volunteering please contact Jackie Peterson.

Love where you live and learn

Our students were able to watch an interactive zoom with Trent Arterberry on Tuesday, February 8th. Trent has two mime lessons on Youtube, please see the links below.
